Senator John Flanagan (2nd Senate District) recently welcomed Miss New York Junior Teen Hailey Germano to his office in Smithtown. Ms. Germano, who is in her first year at Smithtown West High School, was crowned in August and will be heading to Orlando in November to represent New York State in the Miss America Junior Teen pageant.

"It was great to meet Hailey during our recent visit. She is a great representative for our community and she will make our entire state proud. I wish her all the best in the upcoming pageant in Orlando," stated Senator Flanagan.
