

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jose M. Serrano

Senator Serrano Celebrates the New York Botanical Garden's Holiday Festivities

JOSÉ M. SERRANO November 14, 2014

(Bronx, NY)- Senator Serrano joined members of the community and elected officials at the New York Botanical Garden's Annual Holiday Christmas Tree and Menorah Lighting celebrations. The festivities included the grand opening of the Holiday Train Show and the lighting ceremonies featuring song selections by the Westchester Chordsmen.

"I was so happy to help ring in the holiday season at one of our greatest Bronx cultural institutions," said Senator Serrano. "Every year this celebration marks the beginning of the upcoming holiday season. It is a special time to join with family and friends, while enjoying all the great activities and sights the New York Botanical Garden has to offer. Many thanks to the Garden for wonderful annual festivity."