ALBANY, N.Y. – Senator Marc Panepinto released the following statement after standing with “Rebuild NY Now”:

“The need to rebuild New York State’s deteriorating infrastructure is real, relevant, and urgent. I made this a top priority of mine during state budget negotiations when I recently called for a $500 million infrastructure stimulus package that included funding increases to the Consolidated Local Street and Highway Improvement Program, the Deficient Bridge Emergency Repair, and New York's extreme weather program. Here in Western New York, we must prioritize infrastructure and economic revitalization projects so that Buffalo continues to create good jobs and remains competitive in today's market. I will fight for nothing less this legislative session."

About Rebuild NY Now:

Rebuild NY Now is a partnership of supporters seeking to raise public awareness about the issues impacting New York State's infrastructure. The coalition actively engages federal and state elected officials to support public policies that promote safe roads, bridges, schools, hospitals, and other vital infrastructure.

As part of its effort to educate the public and our federal and state policy makers, Rebuild NY Now promotes relevant research, data points and news reports that highlight the need to rebuild New York State's deteriorating infrastructure.

Supporters of Rebuild NY Now are committed to advocating for appropriate investment in the state's deteriorating roads and bridges.
