Awards Breakfast Celebrates Achievements and Contributions of More Than 50 Parent Leaders in the Bronx

BRONX, NY - Celebrating the remarkable achievements and positive contributions of parent leaders in the 34th Senate District, State Senator Jeff Klein (D-Bronx/Westchester), joined by more than 200 education officials, local teachers and parents, today hosted his annual Educators Breakfast at F&J Pine Restaurant in the Bronx. More than 50 parent leaders received certificates of appreciation for their dedication to local schools.

Senator Klein said: “Parent engagement plays a critical role in child development, educational attainment and overall academic success. Today, I’m proud to host our third annual Educators Breakfast to honor and celebrate our parent leaders who work tirelessly to bring increased resources and much-needed supports to our local schools.”

The program featured a welcome breakfast, keynote address and awards ceremony. The event was co-sponsored by TD Bank and Healthfirst. Dr. Rosa Gil of Comunilife, a New York City-based not-for-profit which partners with local schools to increase awareness of the Latina teen suicide epidemic, made a special appearance. School principals, education stakeholders, social workers, teachers and parents from across the Bronx attended the breakfast.
