Hoylman Statement on Recent Senate GOP Comments Questioning Climate Change

BRAD HOYLMAN May 12, 2015

| ISSUE: ENVIRONMENT, CLIMATE CHANGE

Hoylman: "Climate change is real. It's extremely troubling that we have public officials in Albany who deny it"

ALBANY – State Senator Brad Hoylman said: "Climate change is real. It's extremely troubling that we have public officials in Albany who deny it. I look forward to holding a public forum in Albany next week on how our state can be a global leader in fighting the man-made factors contributing to climate change and imperiling the future of New York families, farmers and businesses."
