Senator Jack M. Martins (R-7th Senate District) recently participated in the Village of Stewart Manor's annual Memorial Day ceremony.

Senator Martins spoke at the ceremony, where he thanked the veterans for their service and paid tribute to all the soldiers, sailors, airmen, and marines who gave their lives in defense of our country.
