Evangelist Luis Palau will be Grand Marshal at Evangelical Parade

You should know that International Evangelist Luis Palau will serve as Grand Marshall this year at the Annual Christian Children's Parade.

You should already know that for more than 50 years, this Christian Children's Parade has taken place on Third Avenue where more than 300 churches and organizations march with church members, pastors, evangelists, ministers and religious leaders. Parade floats will be decorated with Christian messages and passages from the Bible.

This year's parade will kick-off on Saturday, June 20, 2015 at 12 noon on East 97th

Street and proceed with more than 40 floats up Third Avenue to East 116th Street, where they will be greeted by a reviewing stand filled with dignitaries and religious leaders.

Ladies and gentlemen, the President of the Evangelical Children's Day Parade, Reverend Luis Serrano invites everyone to participate and watch as New York's Christian children celebrate and uphold our faith and truths. For more information please contact Rev. Luis Serrano at (917) 545-0133
