

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Jose M. Serrano

Senator Serrano Celebrates the 58th Annual Puerto Rican Day Parade

JOSÉ M. SERRANO June 14, 2015

(Central Park, NY)- Senator Serrano marched in the 58th Annual Puerto Rican Day parade, which takes place along 5th Avenue in Manhattan. The parade is widely attended by hundreds of thousands of people of all nationalities and celebrates the history and culture of Puerto Rico.

"I had a wonderful time at the Puerto Rican Day Parade. It was such a proud display of our rich culture and heritage. It was a joyous occasion in which elected officials, celebrities and noted dignitaries join with spectators in celebration along 5th Avenue in New York City," said Senator Serrano.