Senator Bonacic Tours Mountain Service Distributors in South Fallsburg

JOHN J. BONACIC July 16, 2015

(Middletown, NY)-Senator Bonacic toured Mountain Service Distributors yesterday, a full service distribution center located in South Fallsburg, NY that has been in continuous operation since 1927. Mountain Service Distributors, owned and operated by Stephen and Josh Altman, has 72 employees, and provides convenience store products to customers, and retailers throughout New York State, as well as Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Mountain Service distributes a myriad of products including, candy, frozen beverages, grocery products, health and beauty products and snacks.

Local family-run small businesses provide economic vitality to communities like South Fallsburg, and Mountain Service Distributors should be commended for their continued commitment to Sullivan County.
