Dominican Republic Foreign Minister to Attend Friday Breakfast with Hispanic Clergy in Bronx

Ruben Diaz

August 6, 2015

On Friday, August 7, 2015 at 9AM the Foreign Minister of the Dominican Republic His Excellency Andrés Navarro Garcia will attend a breakfast organized by the New York Hispanic Clergy Organization presided by New York State Senator Reverend Rubén Díaz, Sr.

This breakfast meeting will take place at Maestro's Caterers, located at 1703 Bronxdale Avenue in Bronx County.

According to Senator Díaz: "It is a great opportunity for us Hispanic Ministers, Evangelists and Missionaries to hear directly from the Foreign Minister of the Dominican Republic about the new plan of immigration affecting the Haitian community and other communities that have been established by the Administration of President Danilo Medina."

NOTE: This meeting is open to the press.
