Acclaimed artist Engelbert Humperdinck serenades concertgoers at Senator Klein's Summertime Symphonies Series

BRONX, NY - State Senator Jeff Klein (D-Bronx/Westchester) hosted Engelbert Humperdinck at Seton Park on Tuesday. The British balladeer serenaded a crowd of more than 500 concertgoers as part of Senator Klein's Summertime Symphonies Series.

"Engelbert Humperdinck is a beloved music icon who has inspired generations of people and entertained millions of fans around the world. I was proud to welcome him to The Bronx and was thrilled to be able to bring the community together for a fun-filled summer evening.

Thank you to everyone who came out to celebrate and I look forward to many more fun events coming up this summer,” said Senator Jeff Klein.

Throughout the night, families and children danced along to their favorite ballads, including heart-melting songs like “Release Me,” “Spanish Eyes,” and “For The Good Times.”

Humperdinck’s impressive musical achievements include 150 million records sold, four Grammy nominations, a Golden Globe for “Entertainer of the Year,” and multiple gold & platinum records.

“I was happy to perform at Senator Jeff Klein’s Summertime Symphonies Series at Seton Park. It was a great night and I’m glad everyone was able to come out and join me for a wonderful evening under the stars,” said Engelbert Humperdinck.

Senator Klein’s Summertime Symphonies Series continues this month with Alive & Kickin’ on Monday, August 24 at 7:00 p.m at Ambrosini Field and Chubby Checker on Wednesday, August 26 at 7:00 p.m. at Loreto Park. For more information, please call Senator Klein’s office at (718) 822-2049.
