

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Michael F. Nozzolio

Senator Nozzolio Speaks with Students at Gananda High School

MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO March 30, 2009

Gananda- State Senator Mike Nozzolio was invited to speak with students at Gananda High School on the importance of human rights. From Abraham Lincoln and the issue of slavery to Elizabeth Cady Stanton and women's suffrage, each human rights movement required the perseverance, personal commitment and dedication of those involved to change the course of history. Senator Nozzolio was invited to speak to the school by Amanda Moore, a student at Gananda. Pictured from left to right: Kelly VanLaeken, Gananda High School Principal; Senator Mike Nozzolio; and students Amanda Moore, Tori Mikolajczyk, and Sarah Koi