Granville Musicians Perform In Albany

BETTY LITTLE April 1, 2009

Granville Musicians Perform In Albany -- The Granville Jazz Ensemble and the Granville Elementary School Band are pictured in Albany with Senator Betty Little. The young musicians were participating in a New York State School Music Association (NYSSMA) program and performed in the State Concourse. They were accompanied by Colin MacInnis, the elementary school band conductor, and Crystal Everdyke, who leads the jazz ensemble and the junior high school and high school bands.
