

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Martin Malavé Dilan

Memorial Day Statement from Senator Dilan

MARTIN MALAVÉ DILAN May 21, 2009

This has been a year of sacrifice for all of us. But countless others before us have made the ultimate sacrifice in service to our country. It's important to remember these brave men and women as we unofficially welcome summer in the company of friends, family and loved ones. I wish you and yours a safe holiday and extend a heartfelt thank you to all those that serve in our Armed Forces. Come home safe.
