

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Michael F. Nozzolio

Senator Nozzolio Participated In The Grand Opening Of The Stardust Entrepreneurial Institute.

MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO September 2, 2009

Auburn - Senator Mike Nozzolio participated in the grand opening of the Stardust Entrepreneurial Institute in downtown Auburn where he was honored for his efforts to help establish this new state of the art facility. The Institute is one part of the economic development plan: "A Call to Action: A Blueprint for Success" that was created in 2006 as a way to reinvigorate downtown Auburn and the entire Finger Lakes Region. Senator Nozzolio was instrumental in securing several New York State grants that helped to forge the relationship between the Stardust Institute and Cayuga Community College and provided the Institute with new high-technology equipment and services.
