Senator Golden meets with Cub Scout Pack

MARTIN J. GOLDEN October 13, 2009

Brooklyn- State Senator Marty Golden (R-C-I, Brooklyn) this week met with members of Cub Scout Pack 313 of St. Anselm's Roman Catholic Church.

Senator Golden discussed with the youngsters the importance of being a good citizen within the community. Senator Golden also spoke his job as a State Senator and the importance of getting a good education.

Senator Golden stated, "I was very impressed with the members of Cub Scout Pack 313 and believe that they will be the future leaders of this neighborhood. I would encourage them to continue to rise through the ranks of the Boy Scouts and work hard in school."
