

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Michael F. Nozzolio

Addressing The Water Quality Issues In The Finger Lakes

MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO October 20, 2009

Geneva - Senator Mike Nozzolio recently gave the keynote address at the Finger Lakes Watershed Conference. Senator Nozzolio was instrumental in establishing the Finger Lakes Institute at Hobart & William Smith Colleges and has been recognized for his efforts to improve the water quality in the Finger Lakes.

Pictured left to right are: Roxanna Johnston, Ithaca Watershed Coordinator; Senator Nozzolio; Bruce Natale, Cayuga County Planning Department; Ed Bugliosi, USGS Sub-District Chief; Kristy LaManche, FL-LOWPA Program Coordinator; Marion Balyszak, Finger Lakes Institute Executive Director; and

Craig Schutt of the Tompkins County Soil and Water Conservation District.