

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Thomas P. Morahan

Co-Chairs Senator Morahan and Senator Klein host Hudson Valley Senate Delegation Meeting

THOMAS P. MORAHAN October 22, 2009

Local Senators come together to address regional issues at the first and second Hudson Valley Delegation meeting hosted by Senator Morahan and Senator Klein in Rockland County.

In an effort to ensure the Hudson Valley is fairly represented in all legislative matters before the Senate, local Senators have formed a bipartisan delegation to more effectively advocate for the needs and concerns of their constituents.

The first order of business taken up by the delegation was a recent meeting with new MTA Chairman Jay Walder, who came to listen to the grievances of the Senators. Together they hope for future collaboration to lessen the burden of the MTA payroll tax and to improve services in the region.

Left to Right: Senator Leibell, Senator Stewart-Cousins, Senator Klein, Senator Morahan, Senator Larkin, Senator Saland, Senator Hassell-Thompson.

Listen to “Hudson Valley Senators Put Aside Differences” by Susan Barnett of WAMC New York News
See Coverage on MidHudsonNews.com