Padavan Kicks Off Holiday Season With Families and Residents Throughout Northeast Queens

FRANK PADAVAN December 21, 2009

Over the weekend, Senator Padavan (Queens) and hundreds of Queens families and residents got into the holiday spirit at a number of events throughout the Northeast Queens community. Senator Padavan attended CP Ambrose Knights of Columbus Christmas Party, the Robinwood Property Owners Association Tree and Menorah Lighting and the Poppenhusen Institute Tree Lighting Ceremony. Senator Padavan (right center) joins with Robinwood Property Owners Association President Gerald DePaola, St. Luke's Monsignor John Tosi, Rabbi Steven Axleman from the Whitestone Hebrew Center along with families and residents following the lighting of the Robinwood Property Owners Association's tree and menorah lighting on Sunday December 13, 2009.
