

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Daniel L. Squadron

Senator Squadron discussing transportation issues with seniors from the Southbridge Towers

DANIEL L. SQUADRON January 26, 2010

| ISSUE: TRANSPORTATION

On Friday, January 22, State Senator Daniel Squadron brought together over 40 seniors from the Southbridge Towers and representatives from the New York Police Department, the Department of Transportation, the Parks and Recreation Department, the MTA, and the Department of Design and Construction for a summit on transportation issues affecting Southbridge residents, including concerns about the safety of and access to the streets immediately surrounding Southbridge Towers.