

JOSEPH P. ADDABBO JR February 8, 2010

A man in a dark suit and light-colored tie is speaking into a microphone. He is pointing his right hand towards a large map projected on a screen. The map displays various neighborhoods, including Forest Hills Garden, New Garden, Highland Hill, Garden, and others. The map is color-coded in shades of orange, yellow, and red. A legend is visible at the bottom of the map. A woman is visible in the background, partially obscured by a dark archway.
