

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Frank Padavan

Padavan Greets Members of the Queens Medical Society At West Capitol Park

FRANK PADAVAN March 10, 2010

| ISSUE: HEALTH CARE

New York State Senator Frank Padavan (Queens) addressed a statewide group of physicians and medical professionals from Queens and throughout the state at West Capitol Park during their Lobby Day on Tuesday March 9, 2010. During his remarks on the steps of the park, Padavan called for tort reform that will limit and lessen the burden of large increases in medical liability insurance premiums placed on doctors, physicians and medical professionals in New York. Senator Padavan addresses the physicians and medical professionals from the Medical Society outside the State Capitol. Senator Padavan welcomes members of the Medical Society of Queens during their Lobby Day.