

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Michael F. Nozzolio

Senator Nozzolio discusses support for New York's apple growers with Apple Association members

MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO March 11, 2010

Image not found or type unknown

As part of his efforts to ensure that New York's apple growers remain a vital part of our State economy, Senator Nozzolio recently met with members of the New York State Apple Association to discuss measures for supporting this valued part of Upstate's agricultural industry. The members of the Apple Association shared their support for agricultural research to improve New York's apple crop and strategies for marketing New York apples nationwide.

From left to right: Senator Nozzolio, Fred Sherrington, Ken Migliorelli, Ken VanDewalle, Doug DeBadts Jr., Apple Association President James S. Allen, and Peter Gregg.