

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

James S. Alesi

Community Update: Week Ending 7/16/2010

JAMES S. ALESI July 16, 2010

struggle with Leukemia. He was 78. Senator Morahan was a dear friend of mine since his election to the Senate in 1999, and was a tireless advocate for mental health reform. Please join me in keeping your thoughts with the Morahan family.

On Wednesday, the annual Monroe County Fair opened its gates to children and parents, visitors and exhibitors, for another exciting year of activities. As in previous years, the County Fair features a variety of carnival rides and games, live entertainment, agricultural exhibits and demonstrations, talent shows, NASA's Journey to Tomorrow exhibit, demolition derbies and food vendors.

CONSTRUCTION BEGINS ON ROUTE 31F, FAIRPORT ROAD

The New York State Department of Transportation began road construction on Route 31F, Fairport Road, yesterday, July 15th. The project will remove and replace the top layer of asphalt between the curbs to extend the life of the pavement and underlying foundation, and subsequently, will

The County Fair is a wonderful event each year, and I have been extremely fortunate in recent years to secure funding for the Fair and Recreation Association to provide free entry for children under 12, making the experience more affordable for families throughout Monroe County and Western New York. So, if you're looking for something to do