DNT Express Opens Warehouse in Clyde

MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO September 7, 2010

| ISSUE: SMALL BUSINESS

Senator Nozzolio recently participated in the ribbon cutting ceremony for DNT Express' new warehouse in Clyde, New York. DNT Express started in 2003 as a wine delivery service with only three employees. DNT is now a growing and thriving business with more than thirty drivers in its fleet. Senator Nozzolio was instrumental in bringing DNT to the Town of Clyde and was honored to have the opportunity to join their opening ceremony.
