

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Joseph E. Robach

South Avenue Goes Blue for Colorectal Cancer Awareness

JOSEPH E. ROBACH March 9, 2011

| ISSUE: HEALTH, HEALTH CARE, WOMEN'S HEALTH, MEN'S HEALTH

On Friday, March 4th, Senator Robach spoke at 'South Avenue Goes Blue for Colorectal Cancer Awareness'. During the event, free health screenings were given to the uninsured, ages 40 and older. South Avenue Goes Blue for Colorectal Cancer Awareness also featured remarks from cancer survivor Ronald Banks. For more information on the Center for Community Health, you can visit <http://www.urmc.rochester.edu/community-health/>.

Pictured with Senator Robach are (from left to right) Julie Fugle, Arnishia Jordan, Judy Bermudez, Ronald Banks, Candice Lucas, Evie Hurt, and Gabriela Conti.