Kensico Elementary School Visits Albany and Meets With Senator Stewart-Cousins

ANDREA STEWART-COUSINS March 18, 2011

Students, parents, and teachers from Kensico Elementary School took a class trip to Albany this week and met with Senator Andrea Stewart-Cousins during their visit. The Senator gave the students a homework assignment— they are to research the total amount of spending in the last year's State budget, and write to the Senator in her Albany office with the correct answer.
