

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Daniel L. Squadron

Help Renew and Improve Tenant Protections

DANIEL L. SQUADRON April 11, 2011

| ISSUE: HOUSING

More than a million New Yorkers depend on rent regulations to keep them in their homes, and New York's neighborhoods depend on the stability that our affordable housing laws provide. We can't risk tenant protections by letting them linger until the frenzied end of the legislation session, when they are on the verge of expiration.

Join us today to help renew and improve rent regulation.

Please click here to see my remarks on our proposal to renew and strengthen rent regulations in the state budget.

To read news coverage of our push to renew and improve rent regulation, please click here

For details about how to get involved, click here to find out more about the Real Rent Reform campaign or, on the Lower East Side, click here to join Good Old Lower East Side \(GOLES\), a leading tenant organization