

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

New Vision students meet with Senator Little in Albany

BETTY LITTLE April 13, 2011

| ISSUE: EDUCATION

Senator Betty Little is pictured with students from the Franklin-Essex-Hamilton BOCES New Vision Government and Law program in Albany on Monday, April 4, 2011. The New Vision Government and Law program provides career and technical education exploration courses for college bound seniors and offers an academically rigorous curriculum and experiential rotation learning opportunity. The students represent the school districts of Malone, Bruston-Moira and St. Regis Falls. Pictured from left to right are: Jacob Taylor, Tanner Marsh, Danny DeBuque, Rachel Wert, Darien Smith, Senator Little, Steph Haas, Jarrett Bond, Tracy Edwards-Warren (New Vision Government and Law Instructor) and Jerry Warren (Executive Director of the Association of Senior Citizens in Franklin County).