Sen. Ritchie's Career and Resource Expo

PATTY RITCHIE May 31, 2011

Are you looking for a job?

I'm teaming with over 40 local businesses and community agencies to host a first-of-its-kind Oswego County Career and Resource Expo, on Thursday, June 9, from 2 to 6 PM, at the War Memorial, West Broadway, Fulton. Below is just a partial list of businesses and agencies that have already committed to attend.

The event is free to attend, and free for businesses that want to participate.

Businesses--many of whom are hiring right now--will be accepting applications, and you will be able to take advantage of workshops to help improve your job-seeking skills, including resume writing, improving your interview skills, job hunting on the Internet, career counseling. There will also be information available to help start your own business.
