Community Update: Week Ending 6/3/11

JAMES S. ALESI June 3, 2011

The historic Erie Canal is home to many community festivals throughout the summer months and Fairport Canal Days is among the most popular. We are fortunate in the 55th Senate District to have access to this beautiful waterway in our own communities. Enjoy the historic Erie Canal this weekend at Fairport Canal Days with your family and friends.

I am honored to offer the opportunity for individuals to drop-off their tattered American Flags for proper disposal on Saturday, June 4. I would like to invite all of the residents in my district to participate in this event.

the classroom and works to create a safer learning environment.

The “Law To Encourage the Acceptance of All Differences” (LEAD) would require school employees in New York State to report occurrences of bullying to school administration and requires school districts to establish guidelines that discourage acts of bullying. This legislation is a school-wide effort to prevent bullying and promote educational programs for students and teachers.

Incidences of cyber-bullying are increasing as more and more young people join social networking sites such
