

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Catharine Young

A Day at the Fair!

CATHARINE YOUNG August 10, 2011

At a recent visit to the 169th Annual Cattaraugus County Fair, Senator Catharine Young had the opportunity to chat with Dairy Princess Taylor Dechow (Center) and Dairy Ambassadors Taryn Dechow (left) and Jenna Martin (right).

The dairy princesses and ambassadors promote the dairy industry and agriculture by visiting elementary classrooms and nursing homes, helping with farm tours, exhibiting at the county fair, participating in parades, and educating their friends on the benefits of dairy products.
