

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

Telecommuting Discussed at Clarkson University's Forever Wired Conference

BETTY LITTLE October 6, 2011

| ISSUE: BROADBAND

State Senator Betty Little is pictured with Joshua Bell, manager of Kentucky Teleworks, during a panel discussion as part of Clarkson University's Forever Wired Conference. The annual conference, held this year on Tuesday, October 4, focused on continuing efforts to build and promote broadband connectivity in the Adirondack Region to improve the business climate by attracting investment and encouraging entrepreneurship.

