Michael F. Nozzolio

Ribbon Cutting at Seneca BioEnergy

MICHAEL F. NOZZOLIO November 3, 2011

Romulus- Senator Mike Nozzolio recently participated in a ribbon cutting ceremony at Seneca BioEnergy in Romulus as a part of his efforts to redevelop the former Seneca Army Depot, creating new job opportunities as well as economic development at the Depot. Senator Nozzolio helped to secure funding for Seneca BioEnergy to locate and expand their business.
