

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Eric Adams

Senator Adams Keynotes at Law Enforcement Appreciation Service

ERIC ADAMS January 10, 2012

Senator Adams was the keynote speaker at a Law Enforcement Appreciation Service at the Nazarene Congregational Church. Police officers, EMS workers, correctional officers and court officers of New York City and State were honored for their hard work and dedication to the improvement and safety of our communities. Senator Adams' words were well received by the special guests and congregation, inspiring them that individual and collective efforts make the difference.
