

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

Plattsburgh 'Reality Check' Students Advocate in Albany

BETTY LITTLE January 25, 2012

| ISSUE: TOBACCO

PLATTSBURGH 'REALITY CHECK' ADVOCATES IN ALBANY – A group of Plattsburgh High School students met with Senator Betty Little while in Albany on Tuesday, January 24. The students are members of Reality Check, a teen-led movement to counteract tobacco industry marketing. Pictured from left are Devan Bushey, program assistant Erica Olmstead, Olivia Raugi-Chandler, Senator Little and Madison Bushey. For more information visit <http://www.wewontbebought.com/>.