

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Eric Adams

From Senator Eric Adams..THANK YOU!

Eric Adams

February 16, 2012

THANK YOU for putting the pressure on the Senate Republicans! Your voices matter!

The Senate Republicans have decided to honor Whitney Houston for her contributions when the Legislature returns from its two-week mid-winter break.

In addition, New Jersey Governor Chris Christie ordered that flags be flown half staff on state government buildings on the day of Whitney Houston's funeral. Although his decision is receiving much criticism, Governor Christie plans to sign an executive order to honor Ms. Houston.

Click here and here for Daily News articles for news coverage of the updated decision.