Debbera M. Ransom served our country as a Military Policewoman in the United States Army stateside and overseas. She was the first female in her family to join the military, following in the footsteps of her father, a World War II Army Veteran, and her brother, an Air Force veteran who served in Vietnam. Ms. Ransom's last stateside duty began with the 591st Military Police Company at Fort Bliss, El Paso, Texas where she received a Certificate of Achievement for Outstanding Performance of Duty and several Letters of Appreciation. At 26 years of age, she completed her final tour of duty and received an Honorable Discharge from the Department of the Army and returned to her hometown. She then completed her Bachelor's and Master's Degrees at Buffalo State College with the assistance of the Vietnam Era GI Bill.

Post-military, Ms. Ransom has served in the highest leadership positions at two community veteran organizations and is the founding Commander of a new AMVETS Post and President of its chartered Ladies Auxiliary.
