New Playground For Students at School #36

JOSEPH E. ROBACH August 29, 2012

| ISSUE: EDUCATION, CHILDREN, YOUTH

Earlier this morning, I had the privilege to speak at a ribbon cutting ceremony for the new playground at School #36. The playground is just one of the improvements to the school since the end of the school year in June. Following the ceremony, students and their parents were welcome to tour the school and see the changes to the exterior and interior of the building. Best wishes to the all the students, faculty, and staff at School #36 for a successful school year!
