

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Martin Malavé Dilan

Volunteer Opportunities in Wake of Sandy

MARTIN MALAVÉ DILAN October 31, 2012

After spending yesterday touring the district it appears our neighborhoods in Northern Brooklyn were spared the worst of Sandy's devastation. My thoughts are with those who were not as fortunate. Thank you to our first responders who braved Monday's storm, and continue to help those in need throughout the city.

If you would like to help your fellow New Yorkers, email nycservice@cityhall.nyc.gov with your name, email address and borough. There will be ways to volunteer today and over the next week as opportunities arise.