Joseph E. Robach

Honoring Colleen Klix For Success in Nursing

JOSEPH E. ROBACH November 1, 2012

| ISSUE: SENIORS

Earlier today, I had the privilege to speak at a ceremony to honor Colleen Klix as a 2012 Long Term Care Employee of Distinction. Colleen is the Senior Director of Nursing at Edna Tina Wilson Living Center in Greece. She has been in the nursing profession for 43 years. She became an LPN in 1969 and received her RN degree in 1988. Colleen has been working with Edna Tina Wilson Living Center for 13 years. Congratulations to Colleen for this achievement and keep up the great work you do for seniors in our community! Here I am photographed with Colleen and CEO of Unity Health Systems, Warren Hern.
