CATHARINE YOUNG December 20, 2012

This past weekend, Senator Young joined Holiday Valley President Dennis Eshbaugh and Assemblyman Joe Giglio at an event marking the grand opening of the Holiday Valley Lodge in Ellicottville. This new lodge will be a huge tourist attraction for skiers and snowboarders all throughout Western New York, the Finger Lakes and the Southern Tier.

The 66,000-square foot resort replaces a building that dated back to 1962. Despite no snow accumulations, the cold weather has enabled the resort to make their own snow and open for the season.

We wish nothing but the best for Dennis and his team!
