

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Mark Grisanti

Senator Grisanti Introduces Bills Protecting Our Pets

Mark Grisanti

February 19, 2013

S1594A Creates an animal abuser registry which will help prevent convicted animal abusers from possessing, adopting, owning, purchasing or exercising control over any animal. S3753 Gives the power of regulation of pet dealers to municipalities, so that	A photograph of Senator Mark Grisanti, wearing a blue blazer and light-colored trousers, walking a dog on a leash. He is walking alongside a young man in a dark sweater and jeans. They are outdoors on a paved path with trees and greenery in the background.
--	--

Read the bills in full here:

S1594A-2013: Creates the animal abuser central registry, and to require that certain convicted animal abusers register with such registry

<http://open.nysenate.gov/legislation/bill/S1594A-2013>

S3753-2013: Relates to preemption of local laws; repealer

<http://open.nysenate.gov/legislation/bill/S3753-2013>