

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Catharine Young

New York State Police Major Christopher Cummings presented Senator Young with a certificate and patch in appreciation of her support for the New York State Police

CATHARINE YOUNG April 9, 2013

New York State Police Major Christopher Cummings, who will be retiring soon, recently presented Senator Young with a certificate and patch in appreciation of her continued support for the New York State Police.

Like many of our law enforcement officials, Major Cummings has been such an important part of the local community, helping to keep our streets and our neighborhoods safer. Thank you for all your service and enjoy your well-deserved retirement!
