

NEW YORK STATE SENATOR

Betty Little

Girl Scouts tour State Capitol

BETTY LITTLE April 15, 2013

Junior Girl Scouts Troop #3102 were in Albany Thursday, April 4 to learn about state government, including the history of the New York State Capitol Building. Here they are pictured on the Million Dollar Staircase following their guided tour of the Capitol. The Albany trip was the final step in the girls earning their Government Badge.