Rochester City School District Hosts Latino Parent Conference

JOSEPH E. ROBACH April 18, 2013

| ISSUE: FAMILIES, EDUCATION

Last weekend, I had the privilege to speak at the Rochester City School District Latino Parent Conference. More than 200 parents took part in this first-ever event. I thank the committee for putting on such a great and important event for our parents and families. Thank you also for the special recognition and plaque during the conference.
