Lee M. Zeldin

Senator Zeldin Honors Erica Boynton of Brentwood as the 3rd Senate District's 2013 New York State Senate "Woman of Distinction"

LEE M. ZELDIN May 10, 2013

At an award ceremony held in Albany on May 7, 2013, Senator Lee M. Zeldin (R, C, I- Shirley) honored Erica Boynton of Brentwood as the 3rd Senate District's 2013 New York State Senate "Woman of Distinction." Erica was honored for her outstanding work in the prevention of gang violence in Suffolk County. She is also a founder of the Brentwood Association of Concerned Citizens and a leader of the successful anti-graffiti and neighborhood clean-up campaign in Brentwood. The Senate's Women of Distinction program honors the exceptional achievement, personal excellence and outstanding, courageous and heroic actions on the part of individual women from across the State. Pictured here with Senator Zeldin (right) and Erica (Center) is Leonard Tucker, Jr. (Left), an active community leader in Brentwood and close friend of Ms. Boynton's.
