Greece Police Name K9 Dog After Fallen Webster Police Officer

JOSEPH E. ROBACH May 10, 2013

| ISSUE: POLICE, TOWNS OR COUNTIES

Earlier this afternoon, the Greece Police Department held a ceremony to name their newest Greece Police K9 dog. The dog is named 'Chip', in honor of fallen officer, Lt. Mike Chiapperini of the Webster Police Department and West Webster Fire Department. It is tradition in law enforcement to honor fallen heroes by naming a canine after them. Greece Police Chief Todd Baxter, along with Webster Police Department Chief Gerald Pickering.
