Albany-Senator Mike Nozzolio recently recognized Dorothy DeMay as Wayne County Senior Citizen of the Year and Angela Jones as Seneca County Senior Citizen of the Year. Senator Nozzolio joined local seniors at the State Capital to celebrate New York Senior Citizens Day. Dorothy and Angela were recognized with other honorees from across New York State for their outstanding contributions to our community through their volunteer work. Senator Nozzolio has been a strong supporter of our local senior citizens and has worked to recognize the important contributions that older Americans make to our State and Nation.
