G Line Review Requested by Sens. Dilan and Squadron Lands Station, Service Improvements

MARTIN MALAVÉ DILAN July 15, 2013

Senator Dilan joined Senator Squadron, the Metropolitan Transportation Authority (MTA), and the Riders Alliance to announce a G train Full Line Review that proposes major improvements to the line.

In January Sens. Dilan and Squadron asked for a review of the line to address a recent uptick in ridership and suggestions for better service. The MTA has proposed a plan that includes increased service during rush hour, service and station upgrades.
